Occurring at Orangeburg.

What The Ledger's Correspondent Reports From That Pleasant Locality.

Mr. Sanford Walker is in at this writing. Miss Lulu Collins is confined to her room by a very sore throat.

Dr. J. W. Hutton of St. Louis is with Dr. Gagne this week.

D. D. Wilson went to Cincinnati Monday to join in Xmas goods.

Mr. N. Brinkley and wife were calling on friends here Sunday.

John Thomas and bride of Mayville visited his father's family Sunday.

Rev. A. P. Jones filed his regular appointment here Sunday morning.

R. P. Shaffer and wife are visiting the latter's parents in Fleming county this week.

Dr. M. W. Armstrong of Olive Hill, Carter county, is the guest of Dr. Gagne this week.

The People's Building Association will open its Ninth Series of stock January 1st. Call on J. D. Dyer, John Dyer or any of the Directors.

Late to bed and early to rise prepares a man for his home in the state. But early to bed and a little early rise, the pill that makes life longer and better and easier. Henry W. Day, adjoining Postoffice.

CHANCE FOR YOUNG LADIES.

A Season Ticket to the Opera House Available Some Fair Miss.

The Washington Opera House Committee has arranged a series of 30 tickets, the holder of one of which will be awarded a three-story brick house on Wall street.

The tickets range in price from 1 cent for the first one up to $50 for the last one.

It is desired to enlist a number of young ladies to aid in disposing of these tickets, and the one who sells the largest number will be given a season ticket to the Opera House.

Application should be made at once to Mr. J. David Dyer.

SHE WAS BUSY.

A Bourbon County Woman Who Had Never Seen a Railway Train.

Mrs. Nancy Sharp, wife of Squire Sharp of Plum Creek Precinct, who was a witness in the Outback murder trial at Paris, is a most interesting character.

For more than 50 years she has resided within 12 miles of Paris, and within a few miles of Carleton, yet, until she went to Paris to testify in the trial, she had never seen a railroad nor had she ever been on a train. She is now past 70 years of age.

When asked by Commercial's Attorney Franklin why she did not come to town to see the sights, she replied that she "was too busy at home raising her children."

MONKEYED WITH STAMPS.

Newport Man Changes Cigars to Other Boxes and Gets Fined.

Harry Buchanan, Manager of the Newport Cigar Company, was indicted and tried in the United States Court for tampering with revenue stamps on cigars.

The prosecution showed that cigars had been removed from revenue stamped boxes without cancelling the stamp.

The defense asserted that this was not done for the purpose of fraud; that customers do not use the cigars originally packed in the boxes and therefore Mr. Buchanan replaced them by others.

The jury, however, found Buchanan guilty and Judge Berry fined him a punishment of $5 fine and one day's imprisonment, the lowest penalty the law would allow.

Creeping

Consumption never strikes a sudden blow. It creeps in very slowly. First, it is a cold; then a little hacking cough; then a little wheezing; then a harder cough; then the fever, the night sweats, and hemorrhages. Better stop the disease while it is creeping. You can do it with

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Your cough disappears, your lungs heal, your throat becomes strong. Two sizes: $1.00; 50c. A new and improved by placing the chest over of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Price 25c. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

THEY EXCHANGE CLOTHES.

The Wife Took the Husband's Place in the Williamsburg Jail and the Latter Went Out to Liberty.

Williamsburg, Ky., Dec. 15.—Mrs. James Swaine is now in jail here, while her husband, who had been confined on a charge of theft, is at liberty. This change is due to the fact that Mrs. Swaine preferred to take her husband's place, while he went free. A change of clothes permitted the prisoner to leave the place while his wife spent the night in his cell.

Mrs. Swaine called at the jail Tuesday night. She was dressed in a black dress and asked to be permitted to see her husband. This request was granted. After remaining a short time a voice called out that she was ready to leave and the cell door opened. A figure in black passed out and left the jail.

Wednesday morning when the officers went to the cell to give Swaine the breakfast they found his wife sitting there. She had taken her husband's place, and he had been gone for ten hours.

MORE CLERKS NEEDED.

A Recent Court Decision Causes a Visit Amount of Work in the State Auditor's Office.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 15.—The decision of the court of appeals Tuesday, that all private corporations must report to the state auditor for assessment, will entail an enormous amount of extra work on the auditor's office and state board of valuation. At present only about 100 corporations are reporting annually, but under the decision of the court, the number of corporations will have to report. This will necessitate more clerks in the auditor's office and several clerks for the board of valuation, but there is no fund to pay extra clerks, so the next legislature will have to make a suitable appropriation for the purpose of paying for the extra work imposed by this decision.

A POSSE IN PURSUIT.

Hunt Kesterson Killed by Puma Goin in Lee County—Fred Work Was Shot and Seriously Wounded.

Midland, Ky., Dec. 15.—News has been received here of the murder of Hunt Kesterson and probable fatal shooting of Fred Work by Puma Goin on Clinch river, in the eastern part of Lee county, Va., Wednesday. Kesterson and Work were logging in the mountains when Goin appeared. He had a revolver in each hand and without a word of warning he shot Kesterson, killing him instantly. Berk Kesterson made his escape to the mountains. A posse of determined mountaineers organized and are in pursuit of Goin. If captured he will undoubtedly be lynched.

Shot By An Officer.

WEST LIBERTY, Ky., Dec. 15.—A man named Acker, who was on a charge of moonshining, while resisting arrest and trying to shoot United States Marshal Press Jackson, was himself shot and mortally wounded by the officer, a marshal company of West Liberty, and Harlan Spawker, of Honey, Ky., went to arrest Acker.

First At Ft. Thomas.

FR. THOMAS, Ky., Dec. 15.—The residence of Col. M. A. Cochran, formerly of the 4th regiment, was burned to the ground Wednesday morning. The building was a two-story frame of 13 rooms belonging to J. Phillips and situated near the fort. The fire started in the parlor from some unknown cause. The furniture was saved by the soldiers from the fort.

Judge Mulligan May Run.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 15.—Judge James H. Mulligan has been urged to become a candidate for the democratic nomination of the legislature. If he accepts, and the probabilities are that he will, the only announced candidate, William Kiser, will withdraw from the race.

Tom Deadman Cray Rice.

PADUCAH, Ky., Dec. 15.—Tom Deadman, a convict, was sentenced to the penitentiary for assaulting Mrs. Lee Stanley, a young white woman. When she fell he shot her. He came near being lynched. Strong evidence against him was withheld to allow exculpation.

Bill Bove, Whole and Fancy Fare.

PARIA, Ky., Dec. 15.—Riley Grannan, the noted plunger, has written a letter to his mother, in this city, in which he vigorously makes denial of the published reports of his marriage to an actress, and time ago in San Francisco. The young plunger says he is yet heart whole and fancy free.

Chief Deputy Resigns.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 15.—Collector of Internal Revenue, C. S. Repp received and accepted the resignation of his chief deputy, Louis Newman. Newman resigned in order to stop the controversy and the fight that is being made on Sapp.

Seven Head of Horses Burned.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 15.—James J. Jones' barn and stable on Race street burned Wednesday morning. Eleven head of horses and a quantity of feed were destroyed. Loss, $5,000.
